Actionable Cyber Hygiene for your Business

How to develop it based upon today's cybersecurity options

Paul Cook – Vice President Network Services

As the Executive of the Network Services Group, Paul manages the Custom Systems service relationship with their clients. He provides virtual CIO services, cybersecurity guidance, and strategic IT vision for the clients in the Northeast. He directly manages the Network Services Group consultants and engineers.

Paul's background in IT began over 20 years ago managing IT operations for process manufacturers' handling and transporting hazardous waste, EPA certified testing laboratories and industrial product distributors. Visit www.NJAWI.org to read more about Paul.

David Bubb – Senior Enterprise Consultant

As the Sales Director, Dave manages the non-technical relationships with company clients. He manages the sales process to ensure that customers and prospects are presented with solutions that meets their needs and with approvals leads the transition to the technical teams prior to work commencing.

Dave has extensive knowledge and experience with software licensing and manages the process of tracking licenses and required upgrades and renewals allowing customers to stay focused on their business IT goals. Visit www.NJAWI.org to read more about David.
