Join Us

For Joint NJ AWI & CSI Greater Lehigh Valley Chapters Event on November 17th at American Millwork & Cabinetry

Domiano Saracino,

Director of Business Development at Quincaillerie Ltee/Richelieu Hardware Ltd.

Mr. Saracino has 25 years of expertise in all facets of Italian and European Cabinetry, Lighting and the Furniture Industry. His career started in Italy, working with one of the most prestigious brands of kitchen Cabinets.

After moving to the US in 2005, Mr. Saracino expanded his field of expertise in the multi-family business, first in operations and then in product development.

Today, Mr. Saracino is the National Director of Business Development in Lighting for Richelieu Hardware, educating on the most innovative Italian lighting Solutions throughout the US. His Lighting Presentations are well known, and his lighting CEU is admired by the SDA community. His primary focus today is to increase awareness in lighting, supporting the manufacturers 'while integrating LED's in their product line as well as educating architects and designers on the new "Concept" of LED lighting in cabinets. This presentation includes a CEU Credit.

Doug Hague, CEO at Architectural Woodwork Institute

Doug is the CEO at Architectural Woodwork Institute "AWI". Doug will be speaking to us about the History of the AWI Standards, the Highlights of the ANSI testing process, understanding of Testing Reports and their role, discuss Project Specification Language and show a real-life study of drawer box testing. The overall intent is to share awareness and get people thinking how they can use standards to enhance their business rather than viewing them as a legal requirement. This presentation includes CEU credit.

Lunch included - Social hour from 12:00pm to 12:45pm / Lunch 12:45pm -1:30pm / 1:30pm -2:00pm Plant Tour & Vendor Exchange / 2:00pm – 4:00pm Speakers Presentation.
